

VdGM Preconference Meeting 15-16 September 2009, Basel Switzerland

Group Six želite uredit? Slobo pošljite svoja namena

Qualities of a perfect GP

- Basic medical knowledge
- Communication skills
- Empathy
- Team worker and leader
- Deal with mistakes and uncertainty
- Update with new medical knowledge
- Composed personality

Perfect training scheme

University with GP department

Linked with hospital and GP practice with rotations

Well trained GP trainer at start of scheme

Guided throughout the program with regular supervision

Meet other trainees regularly

Regular attachments in GP practice

Sandwich program preferable

Able to choose trainer

“Secrets of Family Medicine”

- Medically Unexplained Symptoms
- Psychosomatic symptoms/diseases
- Cultural differences in presenting symptoms
- Socially related problems
- Dealing with daily uncertainty

How to learn/teach this?

- Sit-in, both Mentor and Trainee with patients presenting diverse problems and a following discussion.
- Motivate working as a personal doctor.
- Motivate to develop your full potential as a person and as a doctor with kept curiosity.

The Role of GP/FP Examination & Assessment

Individual

- Objective setting for trainees
- Self assurance in standard of training
  - Maturation
  - Sense of achievement
  - Motivational
- Public - Confidence in Family Doctors

17/09/09

- Professional/Government

Composition of Assessment

- Knowledge, Attitudes and Skills

Style of assessment

- Practice-based assessment
- Written/ problem based
- Track progress and development over time
- Multiple assessors
  - from Trainer and independent assessors
- Feedback on development throughout training

VdGM Preconference Meeting 15-16 September 2009, Basel Switzerland - Group Six

Left to Right: (BACK) Angelina Russo, Switzerland; Erika Obulo, UK ; Julia Baumgartner, Austria; Krish Dinesh, UK; Daniel Back, Sweden ; Ozgur Erdem, Turkey; Nguyen Thi Xuan Trang, Switzerland; (FRONT) Kersnik Janko, Slovenia (EURACT); Philippe Luchsinger, Switzerland;

17/09/09